

Lunenburg Yacht Club Junior Sailing 2018 Job Posting: Sailing Instructors

The Lunenburg Yacht Club Junior Sailing Program is hiring for the 2018 season. LYC has a long history and the Junior Sailing Program is an exceptional program for all levels of sailing from beginners to advanced racers. LYC is located on beautiful Mahone Bay and provides a perfect location in which to run a Junior Sailing Program.

LYC has a long history of providing high caliber racing to its members including its junior sailors. LYC has hosted the World Youth Sailing Championships and several Canadian National Championships including several times for the Opti Class. LYC is a sailing and racing club first and foremost!

The Junior Sailing Program is looking for Instructors to work with all levels of our junior sailing program - Wet Feet, CANSail 1&2, CANSail 3&4, Learn-to-Race. Candidates need to be enthusiastic, fun, resourceful and hard-working, and have an ability to motivate students. Sail Canada certification is required.

Competitive salaries will be commensurate with experience and certification. The employment dates for instructors is late June to late August. In addition, a small number of instructors will provide weekend programs in June and September.
